

Jon Thomas | Artist statement

My work explores shape & form through the formation of three dimensional geometric structures, harnessing and manipulating light & shadow to reveal the unknown.

I have traveled extensively, exploring ancient civilizations and experiencing their visceral architecture. My work is built upon these foundations.

Starting with a process where I cut & paint hundreds of geometric EPS (polystyrene) blocks. These 'building blocks' are then stacked & combined to produce much larger three dimensional forms.